ABOUT PYAARI NAARI

Hi, I'm Neha, the founder of Pyaari Naari. I have always loved sarees, and that love slowly turned into my passion and finally into my dream.

At Pyaari Naari, my niche lies in pure Mul cotton sarees, hand-painted Mul cotton sarees, semi Tussar soft silks, and designer ready-made blouses.

I truly enjoy curating sarees that are soft, comfortable, flowy, and breathable—pieces that feel effortless to wear.

I believe in slow fashion and minimalist designs, creating sarees that are timeless, soothing, and made with care for women who value comfort and simplicity.
